

Integrated Pest Management

Public Meetings Opportunity to learn how EBMUD manages pests

The East Bay Municipal Utility District makes decisions about managing pests such as invasive plants, insects and rodents using a carefully planned set of tools which may include a combination of techniques including selective planting, mulching, mowing, grazing, pruning, natural predation, controlled burns and spraying. EBMUD is holding a series of public meetings to share details on its Integrated Pest Management Program.

PUBLIC MEETING INFORMATION

STOCKTON

DATE: January 10, 2019
LOCATION: San Joaquin Farm Bureau
ADDRESS: 3290 North Ad Art Road
Stockton, CA 95215

WALNUT CREEK

DATE: January 16, 2019
LOCATION: Lindsay Wildlife Museum
ADDRESS: 1931 1st Avenue
Walnut Creek, CA 94597

OAKLAND

DATE: January 23, 2019
LOCATION: EBMUD Admin. Building
ADDRESS: 375 11th Street, 2nd Floor
Oakland, CA 94607

VALLEY SPRINGS

DATE: January 30, 2019
LOCATION: McLean Hall, Pardee Center
ADDRESS: 3535 Sandretto Road
Valley Springs, CA 95252

All meetings will begin at 6:00 pm.

QUESTIONS?

ipm@ebmud.com
ebmud.com/sustainability

MULCHING • CONTROLLED BURNS • MOWING • GRAZING
PRUNING • NATURAL PREDATION • SELECTIVE PLANTING • SPRAYING